

LEARN OR ENHANCE YOUR HEBREW

This is one of a kind Hebrew class covering details that may not been taught much anymore, even in the Yeshivas these days.

If you have ever wondered about the mystery of Hebrew letters having a dot inside when they normally don't have one, or when a Shwa is silent vs. pronounced, or you would just like to read faster, with correct pronunciation and expand your understanding of Hebrew in depth, then you would love Hebrew 1 offered at Los Angeles Valley College, (LAVC.) You will learn about all the laws of vowels, syllabication, grammar, conversation, etc. You'll also get 5 units of college credit.

The classes are taught by Professor Zev Garber who has over 50 years of teaching experience at Valley College. His vast knowledge of Hebrew goes back to days in New York's Yeshiva & teachers who were Shoa survivors, followed by Bar Ilan University in Israel, UCLA and USC. Even though he was retired 10 years ago, he continues to teach for the love of teaching and in order to keep the program going at LAVC which is the only Community College in LA system that offers Jewish Studies and Hebrew.

By registering, you will help the continuation of this program while gaining a lot more knowledge about Hebrew.
